

MAREK ZYGA *1968
BIOGRAPHY

Der polnische Künstler Marek Zyga ist Autodidakt und seit seiner Jugend von den Skulpturen der Antike fasziniert, die zum Auslöser für seinen künstlerischen Schaffensdrang werden. Seit 2003 experimentiert er mit dem Material Keramik. 2007 zeigt er auf Einladung des Museums für Keramik in seiner Heimatstadt Bunzlau erstmals seine Plastiken einer breiten Öffentlichkeit. Mit Unterstützung von Wiktor Borowski folgen internationale Ausstellungen. Die Resonanz ist so positiv, dass in 2015 die ersten Werke in Bronze entstehen. Heute ist der Künstler mit seinen Werken in ausgesuchten Galerien in Deutschland, Polen, Schweden, Dänemark, Belgien, Niederlande, Italien und USA vertreten.

The Polish artist Marek Zyga is self-taught and has been fascinated since his youth by the sculptures of antiquity, which are the trigger for his artistic creativity. Since 2003 he has been experimenting with ceramics as a material. In 2007, at the invitation of the Museum of Ceramics in his hometown of Bunzlau, he exhibited his sculptures to a wide public for the first time. With the support of Wiktor Borowski there followed international exhibitions. The response was so positive that his first works in bronze were produced in 2015. Today the artist exhibits his works in selected galleries in countries including Germany, Poland, Sweden, Denmark, Belgium, The Netherlands, Italy and USA.
